Magic of the Cup-

By J. W. CARVOSSO

THE story of this year's Cup Final begins on a cheerless morning in January, 1959. On that day, invitations, in the shape of entry forms, were dispatched from F.A. Headquarters in London to the 92 Football League clubs and other senior professional and amateur clubs on taking part in the 1959-60 Competition.

By May 1, the closing date, 462 clubs had indicated that they wished to take part this season. Forty-one were rejected as not coming up to the required standard.

And so, on September 5, the first of the 421 clubs, as far apart as Ashington in Northumberland and Penzance in Cornwall, set out happily, if not very hopefully, of reaching Wembley.

These early matches illustrate the real spirit of the Cup; for the players and supporters alike every match is a miniature final.

When Devizes Town meets Melksham Town in the Wiltshire League it is just another match: when the magic "F.A. Cop" label is attached to the fixture, it becomes the event of the year.

Ten years ago the entries totalled over 600, but since 1950 the numbers have been reduced in stages to present more manageable proportions.

Only clubs which can satisfy the Challenge Cup Committee that their standard of play, ground facilities and support are commensurate with the competition, are now accepted.

At first this pruning came in for some criticism, especially as some of the smaller clubs, which had taken part for years, all of a sudden found they had been excluded.

FEAR KILLED

Now, however, there is general agreement that the present set-up is far more practicable : with only amateur cup ties to interfere, the smaller clubs are finding that their early season league fixtures are not just odd games here and there amid a succession of cup Saturdays.

There is danger, of course, in this pruning becoming the thin end of the wedge for the amateurs, for there could be support in some quarters for a move to make the F.A. Cup exclusively professional.

They need have no real fear of this happening, however. For the Cup without giant killers, be it Norwich City, Peterborough United, Tooting and Mitcham, or Wycombe Wanderers, would be like racing without its outsiders.

Praise, therefore, the exploits of the smaller clubs, their impish thrusts into the giant's realm, which has created that tantalizing but glorious cup uncertainty.

Praise, too, the Football League clubs, whose cup cavalcade would fill volumes. Every League club, players and supporters, have known, at one time or other, the nerve-tingling excitement of a successful cup run—and the bitter disappointment of final elimination.

Success brings with it publicity, it enivens an otherwise humdrum routine and it focuses the national spotlight on the club, its town and citizens, for a brief but glorious spell.

Seventy-two years ago the Football League began: two of its twelve founder members are in opposition at Wembley this afternoon; both have tasted victory before, both have written memorable pages in the history of the game.

Their names conjure up vivid memories of earlier cup battles, and their appearance together on Wembley's famous turf is a tribute to the officials and players who guided their destinies for so many years.

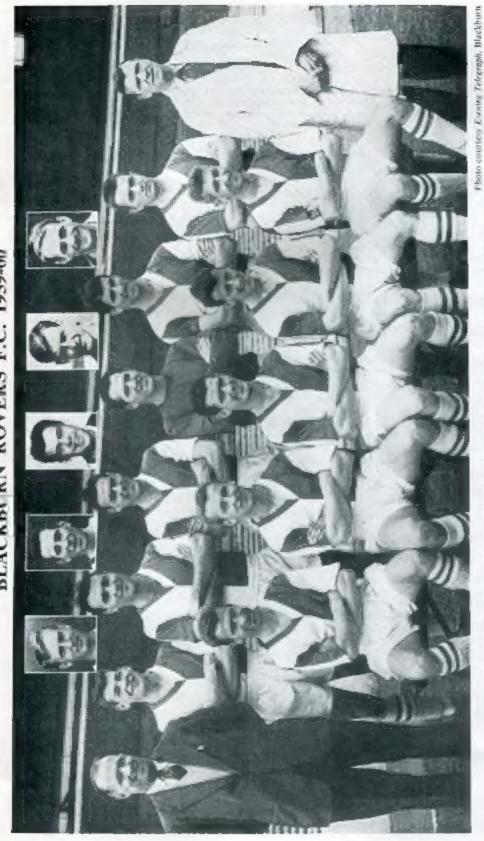

· WILL NEVER DIE

Since the war there have been two attempts to inaugurate supplementary competitions to the F.A. Cup. In 1948, a proposed Intermediary Cup for non-league professional clubs was rejected, and last year a similar idea in which the Third and Fourth Division clubs of the Football League would take part found few supporters and was dropped.

There will be others in the future, but the F.A. Cup will never die. Mighty crowds have packed every ground in the land and have helped to swell the finances of clubs and Association alike. The expectancy of the draw, the pre-match cup fever, the rattles and bells, the swaying crowd, the roar which greets the first goal, the despetate dying minutes to cling to a slender lead, when the most disciplined player can be excused for clearing his lines with a mighty kick into touch. These are the things which only the cup can produce.

And as Referee Howley whistles the start of today's Final, back at the F.A. Headquarters all entry forms for the 1960-61 competition will have been received, and in four months' time the little clubs will once again begin the long trek to Wembley, 1961.

Rovers thrive on the impossible

By SAM LETTON

MF danger-loaded path to Wembley of Blackham Rovers this season . . . forcing replays at Sunderland and Barnicy, winning away from home at Blackpool, at Tottenham and (in the Senti-Final) away from home at Maine Read . . . might seem amazing to many thousands

But not to those who know that the Rovers, fermed in 1874, re-formed a year later, won every match in their first season and, as they had no ground, every success was achieved away from home.

If ever a club thrived on the impossible, the spectacular, the dramatic and the remantic in soccer it is Blackburn Rovers. They have won the F.A. Cup six times, lost in the Final once, and been fifteen times in the Semi-Finals.

There are some who will say the Rovers made their greatest impact on cup soccer a long time ago. For five of their cup triumples were in the last century—a fantastic hat-trick in 1884-5-6, another splended double in 1890-91. The losse 20th century win was in 1928, when they beat Huddersfield 3-1.

The team that day for those who like to include in a spot of pre-kick-off nostalgia this Cup Final Saturday was: Crawford, Hutton, Jones, Healless, Rankin, Campbell, Thornewell, Puddefoot, Roscamp, McLean and Righs, and the goals from Roscamp (2) and McLean.

FIRST CUP TRIUMPH

Keeping on the 1880's for a little longer I have to go for the history of Blackburn's first cup win to the "Association Football" volumes, just published this year, for the scene that day, March 29, 1884. Compare the scene then to the mighty speciacle of today.

The final was between Blackborn and Queen's Park (consisting then of the entire Scottish International side) and it was played at the Oval before 12,000 fars. When Blackburn took the field great flights of pigeons were released by the Blackburn fans, who were described the following day in the Pull Mall Gazette as "A Northern horde of uncouth garb and strange Rovers won 2-1.

That was the start of the three-in-a row with which, of course, has never been repeated

And in today's powerful competition, I doubt whether it will ever be repeated.

Those glorious 80's produced Blackburn stars like James Forrest. Through the years the thread of great names is kept with the massese Bob Crompton, Roscamp, in the 1928 Pinal, will certainly not be claused in the same brilliant bracket as the magnificent England Captain, but be gets a mention in the secord books for scoring what is still the greatest Cup Final goal.

In thirty seconds he had demoralised the hopes of powerful Huddersfield remember at that time they had just won the League Champiorship for three years running - when he shouldercharged the Huddersheld keeper over the line. And Rovers went on to win a Final few had given them much hope of mastering.

Only a team with an unquenchable fighting spirit could be here today, for their cup ambitions for 1960 should have been abruptly squashed in the grass of Turf Moor, Burnley, way back in med-March.

FIGHTING COME-BACK

I wenty minutes from the end of a furd Lancachire sixth round tie at Burniey, Blackburn were three goals down and the twin towers of Wembley had been apparently obliterated for yet another year. Then Blackburn were awarded a panalty which was plopped home with com-mendable calm by Bryan Douglas. Four minutes from the end Fire International and left half Mick McGrath smashed home the third equaliser.

In case you think this was the only hazard on the road here today, remember it was the same Irishman McGrath who shot home the equaliser in the last five manutes of the first fourth round tic with Blackpool earlier in the season.

Introducing

HARRY LEYLAND, Goalkeeper

Five years ago this fine keeper's big-match career had sectuagly finished. He quit Everton, where he went as a 17-year-old, and joised Southern League Tonbridge. But he had only played the first half of a trial match for them, and signed, when Blackburn manager, Johnny Carey, found himself needing a keeper in an emergency. He remembered Leyland, paid Tonbridge £600 for a player who had not even played in a League match, paid Everton a fee and Leyland has been a brilliantly safe keeper for the Rovers ever since. Height 5 ft. 10 in., weight 11 st. 5 lb.

DAVE WHELAN, Right Back

Bradford-born, he joined Revers in the 1958-59 season from a Wigan junior club. Strong in the tackle with a wonderful recovery, he was singled out by Matt Busby eighteen months ago as "one of the most improved players of the season". Already spotted by the F.A. for representative matches. Height 5 ft. 8 in., weight 11 st. 6 lb.

Born in South Shields but another of the young men brought through the youth training scheme at Blackburn and one of six men in the side who cost only a £10 signing on fee. Five years at Blackburn but now the regular choice. Height 5 ft. 7½ in., weight 11 st.

RONNIE CLAYTON, Right Half (Captain)

At 25 captain of England as well with thirty caps behind him. Straight from school to the Rovers where he appeared in the League side, and in a Cup senu-final, as a 17-year-old. Tremendous experience, hard tackler, a fighter for every one of the ninety minutes. Off the field a quiet-spoken newsigent who believes that 100 per cent, soccer ability will win every time. Height 5 ft. 10 in., weight 11 st. 4 lb.

MATT WOODS, Centre Half

Three months after goalkeeper Leyland left I verton for Blackburn. Woods did the same. He cost £6,000 and has more than repaid that fee in consistency and dourness in the middle of the field. Quit Everton because he was tired of being stand-in for Tommy Jones. Born in Skelmersdale, he tightened up the Rovery' defence immediately he came into it in 1956 after four centre halves had been tried out. Height 6 ft., weight 12 st. 6 lb.

Signed by former Blackburn manager Johnny Carey from Carey's old club, Home Farm, in Dublin. Now an automatic choice for Eire—following in the Carey footsteps. There tackler and the man whose equalising goals saved the day against Blackpool and Burnley. Height 5 ft. 9 in., weight 10 st. 6 lb.

BRIAN DOUGLAS, Outside Right

flut may appear as inside left. Local lad, recommended to the club by his mother. A sensational right wing discovery by England two years ago when he was likened to Matthews, particularly by the Scots. Then a serious cartilage operation robbed him of a South American tour place last summer. Joined Rovers as an inside left but changed to a winger. Now at 26, back in the England side as a right winger. Height 5 ft, 51 in., weight 9 st, 13 lb.

PETER DOBING, Inside Right

Brilliant, Manchester-born forward who signed for Blackburn on his 17th birthday. Six weeks previously he had joined the staff as an anatour straight from school. On his Army demob day this season he scored two of the goals which knocked Blackpool out of the replay. One of the England under-23 summer tour party which leaves next week. Height 5 ft. 10 in., weight 11 st. 6 lb.

DEREK DOUGAN, Centre Forward

One of the most deceptive leaders in the game today. Unpredictable, brilliant ball player and a really astate signing by manager Dally Duncan from Portsmouth in March last year when Pompey were doomed to relegation. Pompey paid the Irish club, Distillery, £4,000 in the 1957–58 season. The day Pompey signed him, in the stand also watching were managers Stan Cullis (Woives), Raich Carier (Leeds) and Johnny Carey (Blackburn). Dougan cost Blackburn £10,000. Height 6 ft. 2 m., weight 12 st.

But he may turn out today on the right wing with Bryan Douglas moving into the inside left position. A surprise signing from Liverpool last November for £6,000. This very tall forward was overshadowed at Liverpool by Billy Liddell. He was the shock hero of the day for Blackburn when his two goals knocked Spurs out of the Cup. Plays anywhere in attack. Height 6 ft. 2 m., weight 12 st. 2 lb.

The only Scot in the side. Blond, and brilliant ball player who joined Rovers from St. Mirren in 1956. Then, as a 24-year-old, he cost Blackburn £6.000. Previously he played for Third Lanark. Consident and classy, he is one of the most underrated footbailers in the First Division. Height 5 R. 10 in., weight 11 st. 6 lb

RESERVE

ROY ISHERWOOD, Forward

Signed from non-League Nelson, but another Blackburn-born lad. Joined the Rovers in July, 1956, on amateur forms. He is the same age and beight as Bryan Douglas, his great rival in Blackpool schools' teams and in the present League side. Now moved to inside forward. Height 5 ft. 53 in., weight 10 st. 12 lb.

TODAY'S REFEREE

MR. KEVIN HOWLEY (North Riding)

Thirty-five-year-old Kevin Howley is one of the youngest referees ever to officiate in a Final.

He has had a meteoric rise to the No. I honour just six seasons as a Football League referee and two on the F.A. International list.

In the past four years he has handled three sixth-round P.A. Cup ties, four sentifinals, one Scottish international match, one Young England game and two European Cup ties. He is married and has two sons.

Dynamic footballer Jimmy Greaves trains and scores on Bovril

R 1GHT FROM THE START, Jimmy Greaves' football career has been an amazing success story.

He was one of the youngest players ever chosen for the England Under-23 International team, and he scored a goal within the first 10 minutes of his first appearance with the team in 1957.

As Chelsea's inside forward Jimmy has maintained his early promise, is now a full international player and one of the leading goal scorers in the Football League.

Jimmy, clearly marked for a great future in football, makes Bovril part of his training schedule. He says, "Like many other professional footballers, I take Bovril regularly all through the season. I thoroughly enjoy it wouldn't be without it in fact. Bovril is a big help when it comes to keeping you at the top of your form."

BOVRIL does you a power of good
